

AGENDA

Rule Language Development for Selected
Oil & Gas and VOC Stationary Source Control Strategies
Ozone Stakeholder Involvement Process

Wednesday, June 11, 2008 | 8:30 a.m. to Noon

Regional Air Quality Council | Junior Achievement Board Room, 2nd Floor
1445 Market Street | Denver, CO 80202

8:30 a.m. Introduction

- APCD Stationary Source Program staff will recap the overall timeline, schedule and process for rule language development for VOC oil & gas and stationary source strategies.

8:40 a.m. Review of Comments and/or Revisions on Proposed Language

- APCD Regulatory Development Program staff will discuss the difference between RACT and BACT, and summarize the commenting process and status, as well as present highlights of comments received and Division responses made related to the following:
  - Condensate Tanks
  - Regulation No. 3 and Regulation No. 7 RACT Fix-up
  - Regulation No. 3 Exemptions
  - Pneumatics

9:45 a.m. Break

10:00 a.m. Proposed Language

- APCD Regulatory Development Program staff will present concepts, walk-thru any proposed language, and discuss concerns and issues related to the following:
  - Largest VOC Sources in the NAA
  - Regulation No. 7 Expansion in the NAA
  - Condensate Tanks State-wide
  - Pneumatics State-wide

11:00 a.m. Discussion and Next Steps